3. Conditions of Application

While it may seem like a great idea to work at the Show, there are some factors you will need to consider prior to submitting your application:

- The Show environment is not your average retail store. The work is fast paced, repetitive, unpredictable and can change with little notice.
- Customers can be abrupt, verbally abusive, impatient and sometimes intentionally dishonest. Mature, clear thinking and adherence to training and supervisor's instructions will give you the skills to handle such situations.

We will consider each candidate for interview on the information presented in your resume. If you are a student without any/much work experience, please be sure to include your volunteer experience and any particular skill sets you have acquired through volunteer and life experiences.

- Successful applicants will be contacted via email for interview. Interviews will be held on Sunday, 12th September 2021
- Due to the volume of applicants received, unsuccessful applicants will not be contacted.

Following interviews, those applicants who are selected for an employment offer will be emailed an Offer of Employment.

- Successful interviewees offered employment MUST accept the offer of employment by the due date indicated in the email and attend the scheduled training session on Sunday, 19th September 2021.
- Unsuccessful interviewees will also be notified.

Whilst successful interviewees may not be rostered on for the entire event, we ask that you make yourself available for the entire Show, 25th September – 2nd October, as extra shifts can become available at short notice.

I acknowledge and understand the Conditions of Application:

If selected for an interview, I am available to attend an interview on SUNDAY, 12th September 2021.

If selected for employment following an interview, I am available to attend the compulsory training on SUNDAY, 19 September 2021.
